BAPTIST LADIES FORM NEW AID SOCIETY.

A new Ladies Aid Society was recently organized by members of the First Baptist church for the purpose of improving the church building and doing any other work that falls legitimately in their way without infringing upon the fields of the regular Missionary Society which meets every week on Thursday.

The new organization will meet only once in a month on the afternoon of the last Tuesday in each month, always at the residence of some member of the society and not in the church. The officers, selected at the organization at the home of Mrs. Bell on Romana street last month, are:

Mrs. J. C. Chaney, president.
Mrs. W. M. Loftin, vice-president.
Mrs. W. W. Weekly, secretary and treasurer.

The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Leslie E. Brooks on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

RECEPTION FRIDAY NIGHT AT MRS. W. D. CHIPLEY'S.

The Baptist reception given Friday night from 6 to 10, by Mrs. W. D. Chipley in her handsome home was largely attended by both resident and visiting Baptists and by quite a sprinkling of the members of other denominations.

Aside from its religious interest the occasion was fraught with pleasure to the old friends of the hostess who rejoiced to see her again presiding over the mansion noted for brilliant hospitality during the life of her distinguished husband, the lamented Col. W. D. Chipley.

Receiving with Mrs. Chipley were Rev. Frederic Jones pastor of the First Baptist church and Mrs. Jones, Rev. F. Y. Pitts the new city missionary and Mrs. Pitts, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Pierpont.

There was a notable absence of floral decoration there being only a few vases of flowers on the mantels.

IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another telling her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a woman full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day. Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—“Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me.”

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which a druggist may offer.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

The Question of Eating...

Ever worried over it? No need to be. Of course, most people think about it three or four times a day—perfectly natural, you know—but when you're down town hungry or hot, the best thing for you to do is to drop in at and a few fine ferns in the reception rooms, and carnations on the table in the dining room. Otherwise the beauty of the brilliantly lighted rooms and their handsome old furnishings were sufficient.

The two parlors were thrown open and Wyer's orchestra concealed in a small ante-room furnished delightful music throughout the evening.

Mrs. J. W. Lorton presided at the coffee table, Mrs. T. V. Kessler at the chocolate and Miss Louise Covington at the tea table, while Miss Mabel and Miss Josie Loftin, Miss Allie Johnson, Miss Bessie Williams, Miss Lurline Fulghum, Miss Janie Waite, Miss Oddie Clubbs and Miss Vivian Byrd served.

One of the objects of the reception was to promote acquaintance and sociability, and the absence of stiffness and unnecessary convention, the ease and cordiality of the atmosphere was one of the best features of the occasion and made the function a most enjoyable and successful one from every point of view, especially as a social feature of church membership.

STRAW RIDE AND OYSTER ROAST ON BEACH.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitch Jacoby entertained a party of friends in the most enjoyable way Thursday night at their home in Fiserville.

The entire beach bordering their place was brilliantly illuminated by huge bonfire torches raised five feet above the ground, displaying a beautiful and picturesque scene.

On a large table, well appointed and laden with every good thing that goes with oysters, the lusciously roasted bivalves were piled around and served smoking hot from their bed of glowing coals on the sands.

After two hours of jolly good cheer on the beach, the remainder of the evening was spent in the house where music and dancing were enjoyed till midnight when the guests were given a straw ride to their homes in the city.
